

Paweł Kowalewski, Director of the Bureau for Integration with the Euro Area National Bank of Poland, Poland

Work experience:

Current profession:

From January 2008: National Bank of Poland

From January 2009 until now: Director of the Bureau for Integration with the Euro Area

October 2008 – December 2008: Deputy Director of the Bureau for Integration with the Euro Area

January 2008-September 2008: Advisor

July 2008: Member of the official delegation of the Republic of Poland to Venezuela,

Jan. 2008 – Mar 2008

Team leader at the EC Delegation in Zagreb, Croatia

Ex-post evaluation of CARDS 2002 project “Development of Public Debt Management Capacity”. Assess the performance against defined objectives and whether these objectives have been met effectively, efficiently, whether they are sustainable and secure.

Mar. 2007 – Dec 2007 Independent Economist, Poland

Cooperation with:

National Bank of Poland (seminars in Oct. 2007 and Dec. 2007)

Vienna Business School of Economics and Business

Warsaw School of Economics

Warsaw University of Technology Business School

Gdansk Foundation of Management Development

European Institute of Public Administration (Warsaw)

- Transition Problems of Central & Eastern Europe

Aug. 2002-Jun. 2003 Institute for International Economic Studies, Austria
Researcher, in cooperation with the Austrian Central Bank (OeNB) - Research on CEE economies, C4 and the Baltic States

Dec. 2000- Aug. 2002 University of Gdansk, Poland - Lecturer

Sep.1996- Jul. 2001 The Gdansk Institute for Market Economics - Research on the global economy and on the exchange rate policies

Key responsibilities:

- Public debt management

- New debt issues: domestic debt (auction & private placement) and foreign debt (public & benchmark issues)

- Paris Club negotiations

Since Sep. 2004 Ministry of Finance, Poland

Chief advisor to the Minister of Finance - responsible for exchange rate policy and the EMU

Oct. 2003- July.2004 University of Economics and Business Administration Vienna

Lectures on:

- International Macroeconomics

- International Monetary System

Education:

2000 Ph. D. Degree University of Gdansk, “The euro’s impact on the international monetary system”

1996 Master of Economics University of Gdansk